Proceedings of Court Of Common Pleas

Court convened on Thursday morning, the first day being devoted to equity matters. With a heavy docket comprising many small items an effort is being made to dispose of as many cases as possible.

Case of Pocomoke Guano Co. vs Sam Sellers was commenced Friday and lasted until Monday noon. On the single issue submitted to the jury the verdict was in favor of Sellers. However, the main issue will be settled by Judge Mauldin and he is not bound by the jury's findings as this is an action of equity for the foreclosure of 3 mortgages.

In the case of Ruby Mercantile Co. vs R. S. Gullledge the jury found a verdict in favor of Ruby Mercantile Co. for $65.00.

In the case of Pittsburgh Steel Co. vs Threatt Bros., the jury rendered verdict in favor of Pittsburgh Steel Co. for $385.

A verdict for $53.87 was rendered in favor of Ruby Mercantile Co. in the case of Ruby Mercantile Co. vs Rural Policeman Ernest Moore.

The cases of Mary Rayfield vs S. A. Land and Ruby Mercantile Co. vs R. P. Tucker were compromised.

The case of J. N. Stricklin, owner of the Cheraw Chronicle, against J. D. Ingram, W. L. McCoy and others was tried in the absence of the defendants. Verdict was rendered in favor of Mr. Stricklin for the full amount of his claim, about four hundred dollars.

"The Mischievous Nigger"

There will be a minstrel farce at Ross Hall Friday night at 8 o'clock entitled "The Mischievous Nigger." This show is made up entirely of local talent and the proceeds are to go for the benefit of the Sunday and Day schools.

"A merry laugh doeth good like medicine" and there is many a merry laugh in store for you (Shorty Lonnie variety) at this show.

Don't miss it if you have the "blues" or "I don't want to have them."

"Nobody loves a fat man," Fatty Arbuckle says the man who could make such a statement was dead before he spoke so "Laugh and grow fat."

Government Recommends

"Safe Farming" to South

A program of "Safe Farming" for the South is outlined in a circular which the United States Department of Agriculture has sent to bankers, business men and farmers in the cotton States. The history of agriculture in the South, it has been said, has been one of lean years and fat years. Short crops and high prices have almost invariably been followed by big crops and low prices and, in consequence, the farmer has experienced much distress. The increased attention which has recently been given to supporting the people upon the land has already resulted in much good, but there is some danger, it is pointed out, that, with the price of cotton rising, there will be a tendency for farmers to return to the old system of gambling on cotton. If the people of the South produced their own living, the circular points out, it would steady the whole system and keep the boat from rocking. The safety measures recommended are as follows:

1st. Produce a home garden for every family on the farm, the year round, paying special attention to a plot of Irish or sweet potatoes sufficient to supply the family with food of this character. Where feasible, have a patch of sorghum or other cane to produce syrup for the family.

2d. Produce the corn necessary to support all of the people on the farm and the live stock, with absolute safety.

3d. Produce the necessary oats and other small grain to supplement the corn as food. Pay attention to winter grazing.

4th. Produce hay and forage from forage crop, sufficient to supply all of the live stock on the farm. Use legumes such as clover, cowpeas, velvet beans, soy beans and alfalfa for the production of hay and to enrich the soil with nitrogen and humus.

5th. Produce the meat necessary to supply the people, through increased attention to poultry and hogs, especially. Plan to increase gradually the number of cattle and other live stock so as to have a sufficient number to consume the waste products of the farm and make the waste lands productive.

6th. After all of these things have been amply provided for, produce cotton for the market.

Campbell—Streater.

One of the most interesting events of the season occurred at Friendship Methodist Church last Sunday afternoon Oct. 31st, at four o'clock when Miss Mary Eula Streater daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Streater, became the bride of Mr. James Marshall Campbell.

The bridal party entered the church on the right aisle, Mr. Hurvey Streater and Miss Minnie Streater, brother and sister of the bride, leading the way to the altar, followed by the bride and groom where they were met by Rev. T. B. Owen who performed the beautiful ceremony which bound them together as man and wife.

The bride was tastefully attired in a navy blue coat suit with hat and gloves to correspond, while the groom wore a conventional suit of black.

Mrs. Campbell is one of the most popular young women in our community, possessing many accomplishments, and being very active in church work. She has been for some time a tireless worker in the Sunday school and Mr. Campbell owes to himself a spirit of self-congratulation upon winning the heart of so worthy a young lady. Mr. Campbell is a promising young farmer of the Sandy Plains community.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Campbell left for the home of the groom's father Mr. Oliver H. Campbell where they will be at home to their many friends for a while.

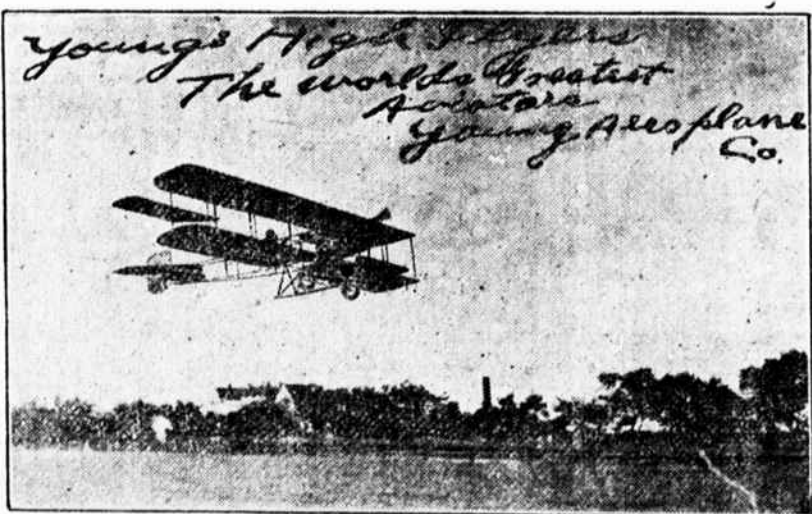

A large number of friends extended to the happy couple every possible wish for a long successful life.

"May their pleasure be as deep as the ocean, and their sorrows as light its foam."

—M. V. S.
